01. a). Define ‘Development principle’, [04 marks]
   b). Examine in brief the above concept in recent period, [06 marks] c). Describe with suitable examples the needs of sustainable development in the development process. [10 marks]

02. Describe in brief the following groups of the developing countries, [04X5 marks]
   a). Fuel-exporting countries, b). Least less economically developed countries,
   c). Heavily indebted poor countries,
   d). Small island developing states,
   e). Landlocked developing countries.

03. Describe the economic indicators that could be identified in developed and developing countries separately. [20 marks]

04. Examine how the ‘new-industrial countries’ differ from the ‘developed countries’? [20 marks]

05. Inspect with different concepts of regional imbalances of the spatial development in a country with reference to co-periphery regions. [20 marks]

06. Discuss with comparing the population problems and challenges in developed and developing countries. [20 marks]

07. "Colonialism was the one of major reason for development backwardness of developing countries". Describe by selecting any suitable geographical region. [20 marks]

08. Describe the salient features of poverty and its spatial differentiation of developing countries. [20 marks]