Course Code: BCOM E4025
Title: Financial Management
Type/Status: Core

Aims: This course unit is designed to provide comprehensive knowledge on how principles of finance are applied in practice with emphasize on new trends emerging in the field.

Learning Outcome:
By the end of this course unit, students should be able to:
- describe bonds and shares
- describe the relationship between risk and return
- calculate cost of capital
- describe working capital management and its application
- apply Financial Management tools for financial decisions
- evaluate different risk mitigation instruments

Course Content:

Method of Teaching & Learning:
Seminar & self learning

Scheme of Evaluation:
End year examination

Recommended Readings: