Course code : BMGT E1065
Title: Information Technology
Aim : To provide knowledge and understanding of Computer systems used in organizations and to use Information Technology as a tool in order to achieve organizational goals.

Learning Outcomes:

On completion of this course unit, students should be able to;

- Identify and understand the basic concepts of computing
- Identify the information requirements
- Analyze the problems associated with the Information Systems
- Propose solutions for real cases in business world.

Contents:

Method of Teaching and Learning:

Lectures, Seminars

Assessment:

Examination, Assignments

Recommended Reading:

