Course Code: BMGT E2025
Title: Human Resource Management
Aim: To:
   (i) Provide the basic knowledge regarding the nature, scope, importance, and the content of human resource management;
   (ii) Develop student skills, attitudes and emotions required to pursue an HRM degree and to specialise in an HR career.
Learning Outcomes: On completion of this course unit, students should be able to:
   • Identify and describe the major functions of HRM.
   • Explain and evaluate the issues in the field of HRM.
   • Propose solutions to resolve the HRM related issues.
Content:
Method of Teaching and Learning:
   Lectures, Seminars
Scheme of Evaluation:
   Examination, Assignments
Recommended Readings: