Course Code : JAPA E2025
Course Title: Kanji Characters, Comprehension and Composition
Pre-requisites : Completion of all compulsory units in Level 1
Learning outcomes:
1) At the completion of the course the students are expected to demonstrate the ability of understanding analyzing and composing intermediate level Japanese texts.
2) At the completion of the course the students will be able to display a sound knowledge of Kanji characters, related information and should be able to comprehend their meanings
Course contents:
- Texts based on topics of current interest, resumes and critiques will be used.
- Essay writing techniques in Japanese
- Learning up to 700 Kanji characters and vocabulary, reading texts containing Kanji characters.
Assessment:
100% examination at the end of the year. Comprehension ability will be tested by written and recorded passages/conversation followed by questions based on them. Composing ability will be tested by writing an essay in Japanese on a given topic, and/or translate of English/Sinhala passage into Japanese, of which the level will be equal to that of the prescribed texts. Kanji, vocabulary will also be tested.

Recommended Reading: